

Walteria News Notes

By BETTY MITCHELL

Dr. Pierce Jewell, formerly practicing in Westchester, will open practice here in Walteria on or about the first of March. His office will be on Pacific Coast Highway.

Edith Buckingham, Neece avenue, is visiting her mother and sister in Dillon, Montana. Mrs. Buckingham will be gone approximately a month. She left on her trip on Friday, Feb. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Loring Bigelow and her daughter Emmalean of Pitcairn Way, spent Valentine's day at their cabin in Lytle Creek Canyon. The family was accompanied by Mrs. Fred Hunt of Inglewood. Mrs. Hunt is Mrs. Bigelow's mother.

Mrs. C. F. Rockeville, 3216 Raintree, had guests on the afternoon of Tuesday, February 13. The visitors were Mrs. A. B. Payne, Mrs. Marge Adkins and Mrs. Jane Finnegan with her grandson Peter. The guests were all of Westwood Village.

Mrs. Bud Sockwell, daughter Ruth Wanda, and granddaughter Wilma Lou, visited Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton of Hawthorne boulevard on Wednesday, Feb. 14.

Mrs. Jean Stewart, 3228 Danaha street, entertained Circle Eight of the Methodist Women's Society, Thursday, Feb. 15. The women spent the evening in discussion of business, and enjoyed luscious refreshments before going home.

Friends heard from Miss Spaulding, formerly of Las Ca-donas street, who recently left for Pennsylvania. Miss Spaulding reported a fine trip, and is enjoying herself in spite of the se-vere weather. Her dog, Tippy, accompanied her on the air trip.

Miss Jackie Hone had a lovely party to celebrate her birth-day on Saturday, Feb. 17. The affair was started at the home of Jackie's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, Adolph avenue. At the Morgans the guests were served a lovely dinner, includ-ing a beautiful cake. After dinner the group went to the recrea-tion hall for dancing. Between 15 and 20 young people attended.

A lovely stork shower was given for Mrs. Moline Montgom-ery, Neece avenue on Friday night, Feb. 16. The shower was given by Mrs. B. Richl. The affair was very successful, and was capped by the serving of a beautiful cake decorated with a stork and a pair of baby shoes surrounded with roses. Punch and favors were also served. Approximately 26 attended. Those from Walteria were Mrs. Ivan Kettering, Mrs. Nancy Lund, Mrs. Vera Murray and Mrs. Teddy Bluff, who now lives in Lomita.
